

Serve your customers with smooth returns

If you love return customers, make their returns as painless as possible. Direct Link can help you offer free and smooth returns from key markets.

At Direct Link we know the value of a good returns management policy – this is a big reason why we offer returns services in e-commerce hot spots over the world. Our services can be adapted to meet your returns requirements for speed, frequency and destination.

It's easy to print your own return labels by using our Direct Link label printing software. You can receive daily status updates on returned goods through our Self-service portal or through the event feed that we send to you.

Choose yourself if you enclose a return label with your delivery or if you send it to your customer.
